
Same reads and reference; filtering and caller policies differ. Each point is one library, measured once.
Genesis peaks are fixed comparison regions, not truth. See the table for organellar retention and peak coverage.